PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION POLICY

Who is responsible for processing your personal data?

Fundación BBVA with its registered office at Plaza de San Nicolás 4, 48005, Bilbao, Spain, email: SARS-CoV-2@fbbva.es

What data do we process and what will your data be used for?

Fundación BBVA will process the personal data provided by applicants in submissions under this call and the attached documentation.

Its purpose in doing so is to facilitate administration of the call, and to keep you informed of the activities of Fundación BBVA, in order to promote and publicize them. You may at any time object to or order the discontinuation of these communications, without explanation, by sending an email to SARS-CoV-2@fbbva.es

How long will we store your data for?

The information provided to facilitate the administration of the call will be kept for a maximum of 15 years as required by law. It will then be erased by blocking during the applicable legal prescription periods, on expiry of which we will destroy your data. Regarding the data required to keep you informed of our activities (name and surname, postal and email address and telephone no.), they will undergo processing until such time as the applicants exercise their rights of objection, erasure or restriction of processing, as the case may be.

With whom will we share your data?

We undertake not to pass your data on to third parties.

What rights do you have on providing us with your personal data?

- You may consult the personal data held in the files of Fundación BBVA and SEIO (right of access)
- Request the rectification of your personal data (right to rectification)
- Request that your personal data not be processed (right to object)
- Request the deletion of your personal data (right to erasure)
- Limit the processing of your personal data in the cases envisaged (restriction of processing)
- Receive the personal data you have provided, in electronic format, and have the right to transmit those data to another entity (right of portability)

You may exercise the above rights by writing to Fundación BBVA (attaching proof of identity) at: SARS-CoV-2@fbbva.es

The Principal Investigator represents that he or she has obtained the acceptance of the remaining members of the research group to the processing of their personal data under the terms set out by Fundación BBVA.
